

Higher Health and Social Care

> What is this course?

This course will provide an opportunity for you to research and discuss health and social care issues.

> Course content:

- Health choices
- Working with others
- Problem solving
- Community involvement

> Who should consider this course?

Anyone who has a genuine interest in other people, are keen to discover more about people and their communities and who is interested in their own health. Being prepared to change your lifestyle would be an advantage.

> What makes this option different?

This option covers health issues and what matters to you. It is rooted in your own experiences and allows you to address issues in your own life that you want to change. The learning is centred around you, your family and your friends. You will learn to value others opinions respectfully and work together as part of a team.

> What can I do when I finish the course?

This course will help you to make the transition from school to college life and should help you embark on a career within health and/or social care.

